Bowling: Liliana Spiteri selected to form part of the EBF Gender Equality Committee

M.T.B.A Secretary General, Liliana Spiteri, was recently nominated to the newly formed Gender Equality Committee of the European Bowling Federation.

The stated initial goals of this committee are to increase the number of women in decision making bodies in the EBF and national federations, with this also leading to female championship officials to provide more diversity in the international bowling community.

Spiteri, who has been Secretary General for the M.T.B.A since 2009, was nominated by Natasa Pirc Musar, EBF Secretary General, and will form part of the committee of 9 well established ladies in the European bowling scene.

The M.T.B.A would like to congratulate Liliana on this prestigious nomination and to augur her and the Gender Equality Committee the best of success!
