Sue Abela wins Gold in the European Championship of Champions in Ten Pin Bowling

National Ladies Champion Sue Abela won Gold for the second time in her illustrious career in ten pin bowling, defeating Danish Champion Mika Guldbæk 3-2 in a thrilling best of 3 final in Chania, Greece.

Abela, who had qualified in the finals in 5th place, made her way up to 4th on Saturday, with a brilliant 218 average over 8th games, and kept that place with another strong set of 4 games on Sunday morning to finish well ahead of 5th placed Andrea Hansen from Norway.

Abela then had to face Nicole Sanders from the Netherlands, who was in blistering form throughout. Abela lost the first game 247-197, but then she responded with her own 248 -202 to force a decider, that she won 225-175.

Guldbæk had seen off the Swede Victoria Johansson with a remarkable 279-236 and 230-224, to face the experienced Abela. Abela lost game 1 188-225, but then as tension started mounting, she kept her cool to edge the Dane 186-182, and then proceeded to lock game 3 in as the Guldbæk struggled to keep up the pace and so Abela won 182-169 to be crowned European Champion once again!

The men's championship was won by Mike Bergamann, who first defeated Italian Nicola Pongolini in the semi finals, and then beat Mattia Wetterberg from Sweden 2-1 to claim the title.

National Champion Mauro Anastasi finished in 22nd out of 30 players, with a good 202.6 average.
