So far the leaders are Fina with a 5 point lead over okmalta.com, Ramis are so far in 3rd, 8 points ahead Turu's Knights who are lagging in 4th place. The latter can still clinch 3rd place as their match is against Ramis, and if they win 8-0 by and by over a 150 pins they will managed to nip the last place on the podium. There were no local competitions held locally, but we are eagerly awaiting the National Championships which will be played on the 3, 4 and 5 of June. This year the championships are sponsored by Bank of Valletta. If you have not applied please note that closing is this evening right before the league.

Now that Sue Abela is a senior, she decided to try her luck in one of the ISBT's tournaments. She participated in France and finished in the 2nd position with a 1597 total. Sue was the best scratch female player, but she only had 1 point as handicap, reflecting her young age amongst the seniors. It is good to notice that Sue was the only foreign lady to make it with the top 8, as all the rest were French locals.
