

Kayden Lagana' wins the singles event at the Mediterranean Bowling Championships in Croatia.

Lagana' was in dominant form as he went ahead after the second game and stayed there till the end of the 6 games. So dominant was his performance, with an average of 238.8, that he ended up 90 pins ahead of second placed Yoav Inv from Israel and was already pretty certain of first place by the start of the last game. 3rd place went to Croat Stevan Lekic, just ahead of the other Maltese bowler, Nicolai Mallia, who bowled a 216 average, just 14 pins less than 3rd place.

The 2 Maltese ladies, Cynthia Frendo Duca and Tiziana Muscat Carannante, finished 11th and 21st respectively out of 30 female bowlers.

Doubles and mixed doubles will be bowled on Wednesday and Thursday followed by the team event on Friday and the Masters on Saturday.
